To Whom It May Concern:

Matt Schroeder spoke at Delphos St. John's High School on September 22, 2004. His message was truly inspirational. Many of my students said it was the best talk they had ever heard. Matt's message is down to earth and shows what can be accomplished in spite of tremendous obstacles that can occur in life. None of my students or staff came away from this talk without being affected in some way. The word they used the most when referring to Matt's inspirational message was outstanding!

I would highly recommend allowing Matt to speak to your student body. I know you will not be disappointed. He is a true inspiration to everyone that hears him. If you have any further questions, please contact me.

Sincerely,
